DEDICATION

TO MISS ELISABETH COUNCILL, our school librarian, whose time and efforts have been willingly and unselfishly given in service to our school, the Senior Class dedicates THE 1944 HICKORY LOG.

Year, I hope your reading has laid a firm foundation for a lifetime of satisfaction to be derived from books. With every good wish, Elisabeth Councill

FOREWORD

Proudly we present the 1944 LOG.

Its true meaning depends upon you.

You have made it.

We, the LOG Staff, merely compiled it.

CLASS HISTORY

At last, we had finished plugging through seven years of grammar school, and now we were looking anxiously to those coveted and somewhat mysterious high school days. But what happened? We might have known it. The gates of a new Junior High School yawned wide to receive us and not those blessed pearly ones of Hickory High-Claremont High to our mammas and papas. At first there was a little disappointment. But not for long did we pine. What, with ruling the roost by ourselves and running errands for dear ol' P. W., we found that this was a marvelous substitute. And, too, we were cute to skip those "greeny" days.

After both an educational and a fun-full sojourn at "J. H." we arrived at this Claremont Central High School (just in case you don't recognize the name, it's the same as good ol' H. H. S.). Bewildering, wasn't it? We were indeed amazed when one senior girl told us that she had been trying for three years to get into Coach's crowded study halls. That was the year we were introduced to everything from A to izzard, even the feared head, W. D., whom, we found, was an "al reet" fellow, after all.

Next year was really a struggle, wasn't it? What with bewildering propositions and queer looking, perfectly enigmatic, Latin verbs, we were kept busy. But not too busy to have a little fun, and we had our share, all right. We found time for nearly everything. Many of our class really "shined" in extra-curricular activities, such as forensics, athletics, Glee Club, Band. To cap the year, we wound up with an all-out fun packed Junior-Senior.

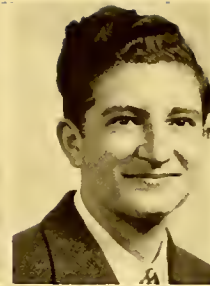

We are the first class from Greenpark to graduate; but although we've been here only three years, the happiness, fellowship and all-round fun of those years can never be exceeded. So, we seniors say with sincerest meaning that because of this school and its faculty, we are better boys and girls.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear John,

Guess who dropped into my office the other day—Bill Cauble and Phyllis Dupille. Yes, it certainly was good to see them again. Surprise number two—Thomas DeRhodes of the Robert Bolick-Arnold Treadway Aviation Corporation, piloted their helicopter for them. Pilot Robert Townsend was scheduled to bring them, but he was given another assignment at the last minute. Thomas knew all the news of our air-minded classmates. Armada Brown, Betty Jo Yount, Evelyn Little, and Willena Lail are airplane hostesses. Now, this is real news. Betty Freeman, Jan Williamson, and Jane Murphy are pilots. I was told just recently in a letter from Carl Wakefield that Don Wilfong and Glenn Starnes are expert mechanics for the airplane company for which he works.

Bill and Edwin Shuford certainly must have a large law firm if one could base it on the size of their staff. Their secretaries are: Helen Roseman, Willie Jo Yount, Doris Pope, Minnie Taylor, Martha E. Frye, Marie Sipes, Elizabeth Shuford, Nadine Holbrook, and Jewel Hendrix. Gloria Lavitt and Mildred Jones are secretaries of the New York office. Frances Stevenson holds down a similar position in the city of Wichita, Kansas. Mary Louise Rudisill and Pauline Cooke are employed especially to fill out complicated questionnaires for the government. They have my deepest sympathy.

John, did you read that statement in the newspaper by Major Gen. H. L. Propst, Jr.? He said that the Air Corps was sending Brig. Gen. Francis Rink and Capt. Louis Lyons to Europe with Col. Johnny Hart and Major Tommy Barger. There they will join Rear Admiral Herman Sain of the Navy Air Corps, Lt. Fred Cochran of the Marines, and Capt. James Blackwood of the Army Engineers, to attend another international conference. Mary Sheely Little, noted author, traveler, and linguist, will serve as interpreter for the conference. Ann Jones, authority on China, may attend, according to Eloise Hill, society editor of a New York paper. Allene Sherrill will record the events in a book.

Last week the famous cornetist, Richard (Drip to us) Newton visited the Martha J. Frye Institute of Music. Martha called in all of her teachers to perform. While Richard corneted, Jane Nowell and Lorena Phillips beat out a duet on the piano; Irene Bolick and Josephine Beam sang; Martha stood in a corner stroking a violin. John (Moe) Kiser and Ernest (Coote) Travis came in time for refreshments to blast and blow on an alto horn and flute.

I also learned that Jack Suther is owner of Hickory Chair Company, and Keith Starnes, Dorothy Vickers, Alice Brogla, and Ruth Herman are assistant managers of Woolworth stores. Adrian Frye is still growing the best vegetables in the nation. Earl Goodman has opened another welding school, this time in Charlotte, and William McNeely is the new manager of the Palace Theatre in our home town.

John, I hear that Clarence Camp's coaching of that Harvard team will give Boyd Parker's Chicago boys a run for their money in their next game. What has Coach Williard Helton got to say about that pigskin duel? Have you heard that Jack Setzer and Thomas Winkler are now playing pro football? I hear that Jack may be selected as the year's most outstanding player; Winkler has also been at the top.

Doctors Virginia Howard, Georgianna Hayes, and Katherine Robeson have certainly nursed Tommy Bost back to health since Betty Gaither's horse stepped on him. With flowers from Betty Jean Lineberger's Flower Shop to cheer him, Tommy will soon be back at work for Claude Abernethy, owner of the nation's largest chain stores. The John Black Markets, however, are giving Claude headaches with its keen competition.

Speaking of doctors, Nurses Wanda Sebastian, Peggy Paige, Ora Lee Bumgarner, Ruth Crump, Frances Rudisell, and Annie Elrod, who were recently released by Betty Jo Westmoreland, will enter the employment of Dr. William Rink, Frances Aiken is a surgical nurse at Duke; Evelyn Knox, Betty Hudson, and Bernell Barger are Navy nurses; Doris Bowman is a dietitian, and Juanita (Sadie) Hill is relieving considerable mental distress with her noble psychiatry. Lucille Templeton is the nurse that men get sick for, Charlotte Jo Sigmon is Dr. Rink's secretary.

Did you see in this month's issue of Women of the World the article by Joyce Barker on "The Private and Professional Life of Power's Prize Model?" As you probably already know, Peggy K. Bolick is the pick of the month. Joyce brought out the fact that Peggy's greatest asset is "perse and poisinality."

It's suppose to be a secret, but it is rumored that Curtis Bolick is working on an invention which will make the airplane seem as old fashioned as horse and buggies once seemed to us. Another rumor is that Melvin Ellis and Jack Alexander have developed a chicken which lays bigger and better eggs. They have quite a chicken ranch now, I hear. Robert Huffman and Paul Pope are reported to be considering buying out the two to combine with their Contented Cows' Dairy.

CLASS PROPHECY

Virginia Fritz has opened a girls' summer camp in Georgia. Associated with her are Audrey Christopher as camp nurse and Ruth Clay as dancing instructor. Virginia writes me that just across the lake Frances Brown and Jamie Fisher have established a retreat for wearied school teachers in need of a long rest from the mental stress and physical exertion of educating such successful citizens as our class turned out to be.

Betty Ann Hewitt's latest novel, "C. O. Miller, Super-Detective," will soon hit Broadway in play form. Annie Pearl Curtis, Mildred Fox, Dorothy Shuford, and Aileen Hass will serve as special stage decorators. Dorothy Sweezy will play the part of the housewife who found the body of Eugene Annas, mad television and electronics scientist.

Have you been to Joe Mitchell's newest theatre? It was air-conditioned by Sherman Butler. Lighting effects are by Ernest Glenn Huffman. Joe's secretary is Dorothy Bovender. Carol Yount, Ruth Putman, Mary Pope, and Doris Propst turned soft and are now teaching school. R. D. Bolick, Jr., is their brightest pupil.

Wilma Wilfong writes me that she is doing very well; however, she has a problem—whether to marry her boss or his son.

Don't you think that picture Frances Balch drew of Mildred Blanton is out to win much recognition? Anyway, Betty Peille, the telegraph operator, heard a famous artist say that the picture was tops in his judgment.

When your players get sick, why not have them insured by Martha Gray instead of sending them to Bobby (Flop) Rhyne and Harry Shuford, the veterinarians?

Have you been out to the Park's Riding Academy, lately? Bill Stephens is Clifford's expert horse trainer. I hear they are making a killing off of old dowagers who think they can ride.

Did you know that six of our high school beauties are Rockette girls—Barbara Ann Dantzler, Betty Lou Correll, Peggy Louise Bolick, Darlene Bigsby, Rebecca Whitener, and Elizabeth Sammons.

I noticed in the paper The Navy News yesterday, which is edited by Curtis Welbourne, that Betty Seitz has become the blushing bride of America's richest playboy. Virginia Sprouse, who hopes to be the main character in a forthcoming event, was the maid of honor.

What do you think? Some one from dear ole Hickory High sent me a copy of the Twig. James Hinson is the new principal, Margie Bynum the home economics teacher, Ruth Norris the physical education teacher, Bobbie Carpenter and Allie Mae Young, English teachers, and Ted Rhyne carries on for our beloved Mr. Craft.

I darted into the Eat Right Cafeteria the other day and ran right into Jackie Reid who has recently returned from the Philippines. She told me that Paul Lowdermilk and Jack Sigmon are working hard on some of the difficult engineering projects in India. She told me also that Ruth Reinhardt, Mary Ann Starnes, Blanche Travis, Evelyn Jenkins, and Eula Cranford have made most successful ventures in matrimony. That's quite an accomplishment these days.

J. L. Setzer and Richard Greer have been lucky in the management of their Streamlined Bus Lines, in operation on the Alcan Highway between Juno, Alaska, and Buenos Aires, Argentine.

Have you heard anything recently about Jack Yount and Richard Sigmon? The last I heard both were on an expedition to the jungles of Brazil in search of a lost archaeologist.

Doris Deitz and Martha Hunt have just bought a little shop which they propose to turn into a tea parlor, which will probably be a hang-out for high school kids. Russell Pope charged them an enormous price for a juke-box.

I know you must have changed secretaries again. Betty Busby would never make all the mistakes in that last letter from you. Why don't you fire her and hire Frances Huggins or Johnny Cash? If for any reason you are not so inclined, send her back to school to learn some English from Aileen Eckard, Margaret Correll, or Marilyn Frye. I know Louise High, Lucille Seitz, or Opal Gentry could improve her typing. And if they can't do it, try Mary Ann Houck at Vassar.

Yours 'til Donald Deal goes haywire and is sent to the Community Asylum, established by Frances Puett.

Ex animo.

ROBERT MORRISON.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

It is a sad but necessary obligation that we, the Senior Class of 1944, seeing our high school life slowly but surely drawing to a close, do hereby declare this to be our LAST WILL

Article I: To Dr. Carver, our esteemed superintendent, we leave our very best wishes.

Article II: To Mr. Cottrell, our beloved principal, we leave this, our sincere wish that he in the future, may have more deserving students than we.

Article III: To our capable Faculty, we wish to express our appreciation and gratitude. We are resolved that your untiring efforts shall not be in vain.

Article IV: To those who shall succeed us we do humbly will these our talents and idiosyncrasies:

To Pauline Shipman goes Dorothy Sweezy's queenly ways. Blanche Travis is anxious for Rheba Starr to have her love for irregular Spanish verbs. Allie Mae Young leaves her sweetness and gentle looks to Lillian Seabock. Bryan Wilfong, do you suppose you could use a little of Arnold Treadway's seemingly shyness toward the fairer sex? H. L. Propst wills his genuine friendliness toward everyone to Jimmy Mangum. Evelyn Little will share her petiteness with O'Lema Cody. To Thesta Maye Frye, Doris Pope wills her graciousness. Betty Seitz confers on Dorothy Collins her love for every one. Marie Sipe wishes Mildred Sigmon to have her good-naturedness. To Eldon Estep, Jack Sigmon leaves his cute grin. Mary Pope bequeaths her kindness to Jane Stratton. Virginia Sprouse leaves her charming mannerisms to Margie Penland. Russell Pope will give Weyburn Seabock one of his air castles built during one of his English classes. Ruth Putman leaves her seat on the bus to any poor soul who might have to stand up. Claude Abernethy leaves his love for riding his motor bike to Fred Ritter. To Frances Hartzoe, Frances Aiken donates her red hair. Jack Alexander leaves his quite ways in the class rooms to George Murphy. Bernell Barger leaves her love for Miss Setzer's Latin class to Betty Rainey Gamble. Tommy Barger bequeaths his small stature to any very large junior. Josephine Beam wishes her pancake make-up on Gloria Lippard.

Darlene Bigsby leaves her apparent deftness in handling men (one in certain) to Martha Starnes. John Black wills Milton Snyder his job as the Boy Scout who asks, "Do you have any waste paper today?" James Black wills his love for sleeping in fifth period study hall to John Cansler. Mildred Blanton grants the use of her long black curls to Elizabeth Candler. Frances Balch bequeaths her good looking clothes to the best dressed girl in the class of '46. Irene Bolick leaves her ability of making high grades to Dude Herman. Peggy T. Bolick and Peggy K. Bolick leave their similar names to Carol Drum and Carolyn Drum. R. D. Bolick leaves his "charm curl" waves to J. C. Johnson. Robert Bolick leaves his luck for getting hurt in football games to the next unlucky fellow on the team. Betty Busby leaves her promptness in Sunday School to Marian Burns. Bill Cauble bestows his good looks to Hampton Shuford. Tommy Bost bestows his love for the sea on Red Dunivent. Wanda Sebastian leaves her place as forward on the basketball team to Martha Digh. We know Eugene Tomason will appreciate Richard Sigmon's wad of chewing gum which he left under the desk in fifth period study hall two years ago. Paul Pope leaves his poker face to Norman Locke. Glenn Starnes bequeaths his Ivory soap complexion to Lamar Poovey. Ruth Reinhardt, Lucille Seitz, and Dorothy Vickers leave their seats on the bus to the gremlins. Thomas DeRhodes wills his expert paint brush to Nolan Yount. With a sigh of relief, Aileen Eckard wills her job of taking up papers in second period Bible class to Eva Mae Hunter. To Sarah Virginia Wither- spoon, Phyllis Dupille leaves her fine sportsmanship.

Melvin Ellis leaves his loud snoring in English class to Bob Roseman. To Lucia Ann Cauble, Annie Elrod leaves her domestic abilities. Mildred Jones confers upon Betty Abbott her fickleness. To Billy Barger, Glenn Huffman leaves his classification of One A. Richard Greer leaves his bus driving position to Harold Hewat. Beezie Hill leaves her nickname to Helen Isenhour. Virginia Fritz wants Mary Gwin Saine to have her harem-scarem ways. Bobby Carpenter leaves her innocence when it comes to knocking on metal file cases to Doris Miller. Margie Bynum bequeaths her love for Macbeth to Hazel Seabock. The boy who can fill Rusty's place in the 1943 championship team may have Clarence Camp's nickname. Johnnie Cash wills her diligence to Martha Jean Pope. Upon Agnes Hollar is bestowed Audrey Christopher's timidness. Fred Cochran leaves his love for airplanes to Clarence Fisher. Pauline Cooke wills her gaiety to Joan Shell. To Emma Kate Yount, Betty Lou Correll wills her use-to-be long hair. Margaret Correll leaves her love for propositions to Viola Wallace. Sarah Cox bequeaths her quite manner to Wiladeen Hunt. Donald Dean and "Flop" Rhyne leave their over-developed vocal cords to 1944's football cheering section. Annie Curtis grants Joyce Moser her exotic look. Eula Cranford leaves her beloved desk in Spanish class to Joyce Madaris. Ruth Crump bestows on Helen Sigmon her big appetite. Barbara Ann Dantzler leaves her ability to attract the opposite sex to Mimi Jean Correll. To Floyd Barger, Curtis Bolick leaves his mania for pestering fellow typists. Doris Deitz leaves her beautiful handwriting to any one who still scribbles. To Margie Warren, Jamie Fisher leaves her masculine name. Mildred Fox leaves her amicable manner to Mary Arney. Betty Freeman's freckles are bequeathed to Doris Busby.

Adrian Frye leaves to Duanne Annas his love for farming. Marilyn Frye leaves her love for hitting people around her in Algebra class to John Robert Flowers. Guinell Freeman receives Mary Ann Houck's job as basketball manager. John Hay bestows on Gilbert Mayfield his ability to trip the light fantastic. Jewel Hendrix's love for bookkeeping goes to Mildred Newton, with pleasure I am sure. To the deserving Juniors, Juanita Hill leaves her sportsmanship. Martha J. Frye unloads on the unsuspecting Rachel Tuttle her nutty ideas, moron jokes, and ability to "shoot bull." To Joe Thompson, Johnny Hart wills his small, quiet voice. Ann Jones leaves her upswep hair-do to Mary Bess Tilley. Martha E. Frye leaves her spelling ability to Betty Jo Yoder. Peggy Wilson receives Georgianna Hayes' beautiful blond hair. Betty Gaitner leaves her knack for drawing horses to Joy Crapps. To Thelma Eckard, Betty Hudson willfully leaves her perplexity of Algebra problems. Nadine Holbrook's basketball uniform goes to the girl who fits it. To Enoch Horn, Earl Goodman leaves his uncomfortable chair in Mr. Craft's D. O. class. The stateliness of Aileen Hass is left to Nora Mask. Martha Gray's vivaciousness is bestowed upon Dorothy Kilby. Opal Gentry's appealing expression is left to Revonda Kiziah. In case C. G. Mason comes back next year Williard Helton leaves his friendly pat on the back and cordial greetings. James Hinson leaves his bright and cheerful manner to Wade Parlier. Betty Ann Hewitt leaves her love for Northwestern to any one who desires it. Robert Huffman leaves his ability to laugh at things in chapel to James Phillips. The harlequin glasses of Frances Huggins go to Nancy Moss. Martha Hunt gives her slender figure to Dorothy Miller.

Evelyn Jenkins leaves her title of the "Memphis Belle" to the next true southern gentlewoman. Joyce Barker leaves to Marion Roberts her lovely manners. To Lillian Seabock, Doris Ruth Clay gives her typing skill. Ruth Herman leaves her big hair ribbon to Miriam Self. To Margaret Seitz, Louise High bequeaths her dark eyes. C. O. Miller leaves his curly hair to Ulysees Crump who we hope will use it. To Joe Evans, Harry Shuford leaves his dashing ways with the girls. Curtis Welbourne wants J. T. Holland to have his large vocabulary. To Walter Hipp goes Robert Morrison's gift of gab. Lorena Phillips bequeaths her alto voice to any one in the glee club who may need it. Frances Puett bestows upon Jean Milliken the responsibility of furnishing chewing gum and candy to the girls. Dorothy Shuford donates her shy but coy manner with the opposite sex to pleasing Dorothy Killian. To Richard Cole goes John Kiser's ability to argue about nothing. May all the girls have Virginia Howard's luck at marriage. Ace Parker gives his athletic ability to Bill Jackson. Jan Williamson's love for horses and cadets goes to Punchy Hunsucker. Cooter Travis wills his mathematical mind to anyone who Miss Dixon thinks might need it. Elizabeth Shuford and Wilma Wilfong leave to Billie Beebe Fulenwider and Punchy Hunsucker their genuine friendship. Edwin Dude Shuford leaves Charles Mitchel his slick black hair. To Arabelle Jones, Betty Jane Linberger leaves her charming gentle nature. Joe Mitchell's tallness and good looks go to James Landis.

Gloria Lavitt bequeaths her typing ability to next year's LOG secretary. Since he has a great deal of it, Richard Newton does not mind willing a portion of his knack and talent on the cornet to Glenn Henkel. Dumpy Nowell willingly gives her nickname to Bonnie Sue Jarvis. Jane Murphy's beautiful combinations of skirts and sweaters go to Augusta Garth. If Bruce Templeton wants it he may have Don Kaylor's big brim hat. Mary Sheely Little bequeaths her versatility and love for Spanish to Violet Troutman. Jack Setzer and Carl Wakefield give their ability to be mean in football games to Grady Miller and Harold Bridgeman. Clifford Park's "horsey" way is willed to Glenn Berry. Kathryn Robeson cheerfully gives her sense of humor to Jean Koerner. Francis Rink gladly hands over his luck with traffic cops to Tommy Greene. Allene Sherrill wills her naturally curly hair to Rose Mary Houck. May Jason Brown have as much luck with the fairer sex as William Rink has enjoyed. Paul Sigmon gives a few inches of his height to John Robert Flowers. Betty Jo Yount's love for basketball goes to Betty Jean Clemmer. Molly Walton may have Betty Jo Westmoreland's gym shoes if she will fork over coupon number 18. Rebecca Whitener wills her golden silence to Dolly Jean Leonard. Herman Sain bequeaths his love for the Navy to Calvin Halyburton. We know Mary Louise King will appreciate Evelyn Knox's generous gift to her—that of her deep love for geometry. Willena Lail wills her golden tresses to Linda Miller. Lewis Lyons wants Avery Wilfong to have his wonderful physique. To Betty Aiken goes Ruth Norris' athletic ability. To Royce Robeson goes Donald Wilfong's expert method of blending soft drinks. Keith Starnes wants Robert Huffman to have his love for photography. Mary Ann Starnes wills her seat in typing to Mrs. Ambrose's pet. To Paul Allred goes Bill Stephens' closely cropped hair.

Minnie Taylor leaves her Latin ability to Johnnie Gilbert. With Lucille Templeton's permission Suzanne Kramer may have her neat hair-do. Helen Roseman leaves her love of factoring the sum of cubes to Peggy Hallman. To Malcom Rink, Ted Rhyne bequeaths his fascinating mustache. Frances Rudisill leaves her unusual color schemes to Bobby Yount. Mary Louise Rudisill bestows upon Icky Long her neatness. Carol Drum may have Elizabeth Sammons' big, baby blue eyes. Charlotte Jo Sigmon leaves her position as secretary of the Glee Club to anyone who has the nerve to take it. To Evelyn Petree goes Carol Yount's charming personality. "Fuzzy" Jack Yount's nickname is cast to Tommy Blevins. William McNeely leaves his gracious manners to Fred Clarke. Although he isn't through with the art, Thomas Winklers agrees to let Ray Cline have a bit of his manly appeal with the girls. Peggy Paige leaves her place in the cafeteria to anyone wanting it. Betty Peile's wizz at English is bestowed on Elsie Mae Key. If we have snow next year Jack Suther leaves his ability to hit people to Alvin Kepley. Bob Townsend leaves his beloved pipe to Ralph Hollar. Willie Jo Yount bequeaths her perseverance to Pansy Zimmerman. Frances Stevenson's faithful dependability is bestowed on Elena Jean Warren. Paul Lowdermilk willingly bestows on J. V. McKinney his love for English composition. To anyone who is able to fill it, Doris Propst leaves her place on the Twig. Jackie Reid's love for riding a bicycle goes to Jane Cannon.

And, now, if any Senior, through the writer's error, has not been heard, you may cast off any of your talents or idiosyncrasies to any poor Junior who for the same reason has not been on the receiving end of this LINE.

LATIN CLUB

Aim: To help members to discover that contrary to the old saying:
 "Latin is a dead language, as dead as it can be;
 It killed the ancient Romans, and now it's killing me."
That, "The Latin language isn't dead, as you can plainly see;
 It's living now in English; it's going to live for me."

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS

Diversified Occupations is a plan for vocational education which utilizes the training facilities available in the community. Enrollees in this program go to school in the morning and work on the job at least three hours in the afternoon, thereby completing the day's schedule.

MACHINE SHOP

The machine shop course is offered to boys of sixteen years of age and older who are interested in gaining experience and training on the following machines: milling machine, drill press, gear cutters, shaper, planer, and lathe. These boys are also given instruction in blue print reading and shop mathematics. This is the first time this course has been offered in the high school curriculum.

FOOTBALL

SEPTEMBER 17: HICKORY vs. SHELBY (here)

The Hickory High Red Tornadoes opened their 1943 season with a 25-0 victory over Shelby. The Tornadoes scored early in the first period on a pass from Parker to Brady who ran the remaining 10 yards. Late in the second quarter, Parker threw a 50-yard pass to Buff, stellar right end, for another score. In the fourth period Parker went around end for 21 yards, and another score. Camp intercepted a pass and ran the ball back for the final touchdown. The entire line, led by Wilson, Setzer, Murphy, and Winkler, showed up well.

SEPTEMBER 24: HICKORY vs. HARDING (here)

The Tornadoes went out of the Conference to play the strong Harding High team from Charlotte. It was a see-saw battle all through the opening quarter with Buff's toe keeping the home team out of their own territory. In the last seconds of the ball game, Murphy managed to break through the strong line to nail Cook, Harding back, behind his own goal line for two big points. Bost, Brady, and Camp were the mainstays in the backfield while Wilson and Murphy held things down up front.

OCTOBER 1: HICKORY vs. MARION (there)

Through gaping holes opened by the line, the Tornado backfield aces were able to score two touchdowns in the second quarter to start the ball rolling. Bost darted around right end from the 3 for the first score and after Bolick intercepted a Ripper pass, carried it all the way to the 5. Camp bucked the line for the second tally. Bost again scored around right end for his second tally of the night. Late in the game the backs started another drive which went to the 2 yard line where Huffman bucked the line for the last score. With a whole host of reserves in the game, the Rippers passed for their tally, but the last attempts were in vain. Bost, Huffman, Brady, and Camp did a commendable bit of running in the backfield, while Bolick, Buff, Wilson, Murphy, Winkler, Setzer, and Wakefield opened big holes and held the Rippers to only two first downs.

OCTOBER 8: HICKORY vs. BESSEMER CITY (here)

The much larger Tornado team managed to beat the outclassed Bessemer City Dogs. The visitors gave the Tornadoes stiff competition during the first quarter, but yielded under the powerful line bucks and on-charging line. R. A. Bost ran 55 yards for the second touchdown after Camp had, only a moment before, bucked the line for the opening tally. In the third quarter Brady was called on to throw his special pass and placed it perfectly in Paul Buff's waiting hands. Buff ran the remaining 35 yards for the next score. Brady made the score 25-0 on the familiar "Statue of Liberty" play, and Buff placed the kick through the up-rights to finish the scoring 26-0.

OCTOBER 15: HICKORY vs. LENOIR (there)

Although twice in the shadows of Lenoir's goal-post, the Tornadoes, led by Camp, Bost, and Brady, could not squeeze out a touchdown to beat the powerful Bearcat team. Buff's punting was superb and kept the Hickory team out of danger most of the game, but once the Lenoir team drove deep into Hickory territory, just to be thrown back by the powerful Tornado line.

OCTOBER 22: HICKORY vs. FOREST CITY (here)

Forest City drew first blood by shaking Shuford loose for 60 yards which resulted in the first score. In the closing minutes of the second quarter, Murphy broke through the line to block a Forest City punt; he immediately fell on the ball to tie the score 6-6. The try for the extra point was blocked. Parker, injured in the Harding game, came into the game to pass to Miller, substitute end, for the second score. Buff's kick was good and the score stood at 13-6 until "Bird-legs" Brady got loose for 15 yards. The score was 19-6 after the try for the point was blocked. Bost, Brady, and Camp were stand-outs on the offense while the entire line stood out on the defense.

OCTOBER 29: HICKORY vs. NEWTON (there)

The Tornadoes, seeking revenge from their 7-6 defeat the year before, ran over a touchdown in the early minutes of play. Murphy rushed in to block a punt and Buff picked it up and ran 30 yards for the last score; Wilson converted the extra point. Camp and Bost kept the backfield moving while Wakefield, Wilson, Murphy, and Winkler could not be stopped by the Red Devil's line.

NOVEMBER 5: HICKORY vs. LINCOLNTON (there)

Hickory High Red Tornadoes, driving toward the Western Conference Championship, were hard put to beat the Lincolnton Wolves. The Wolves took the lead in the first quarter and took a punt on their 40-yard line and ran all the way for a touchdown. Camp bucked the line for the extra point and as the half ended the score stood 7-7. It was late in the fourth period when the Tornadoes made another threat to score. After a pass from Parker to Brady, the ball rested on the 1-yard line. Camp bucked the line for the touchdown. Big "Jug" Wilson converted the extra point, and the game ended 14-7 in favor of the Tornadoes. The whole line played a great defensive game and the backfield held its own.

NOVEMBER 12: HICKORY vs. MORGANTON (here)

With but one game between them and the Conference Championship, the Tornadoes went into the game slightly on the jittery side. The first score came easy, in the opening minutes of the game. Parker caught a punt on his own 12-yard line, side stepped a couple would-be tacklers, picked up his interference, and raced 88 yards for the score. Later in the same quarter Parker passed 15 yards to Brady for the second score, Wilson made the score 13-6. The line was holding the Morganton "Aces" down for little gains, but couldn't seem to shake their own backs loose. Parker and Brady played a nice offensive game with Murphy, Buff, Wilson, Setzer, and Winkler showing up well on defense.

IN MEMORIAM

FINK SHUFORD

The students of Hickory High School deeply regret the passing of Tom Alexander and Fink Shuford who loved and served Hickory High for many years.

THEY ARE NOT DEAD TO US.

*"Such souls forever live
In boundless measure of the love they give."*

REMEMBER THE TIME WHEN . . . .

- ... you first had to plead your case before the head man?
- ... the ground was washed with snow and so was your face?
- ... you went to your first Junior-Senior?
- ... Miss Setzer introduced you to Mr. Caesar?
- ... your room got the E pennant for cleanliness?
- ... Miss McComb said "fer" instead of for? I don't.
- ... one of those "ration" days when you came to school in the afternoon instead of in the morning?
- ... you dated your first cadet?
- ... you were in charge of the chapel program and how your knees did shake?
- ... you were day-dreaming and Miss Greever called on you to explain a problem?
- ... you bought your first pair of brogans?
- ... you got poison ivy gathering scrap?
- ... that certain one said "good-bye" when he left to say "hello" to his country?
- ... you, in a devilish mood, threw some poor soul's algebra book out the window?
- ... you delivered your declamation?
- ... you went to "open house" after the football game?
- ... everyone gathered at the lower gate to gab and gab and gab?
- ... Miss Dixon would say "Pass out quietly, please"? And we generally felt like doing just that.
- ... you read funny books instead of doing your assignments?
- ... Jack Rank presented "Taming of the Shrew"?
- ... you took the car on the sly and ran out of gas?
- ... you lost your chemistry book and had to pay for it?
- ... we flooded the physics lab with a fool experiment on water displacement?
- ... you sweated away at football practice only to sit on the bench at the game?
- ... you threw your books in the desk and found that it had no bottom?
- ... moron jokes were the rage?
- ... you had to write a personal essay for English?
- ... the first day of school came and the rush for 5th and 6th period study halls?
- ... you helped roll bandages at the Red Cross?
- ... the cats and dogs came to school to be cooed over by the girls?
- ... we were afraid there'd be no 1944 LOG?

Well—thanks to Mrs. Warren of Warren's Studio, to Mr. R. S. Cilley, photographer, and Observer Printing House.

IT HAS BEEN FUN; HASN'T IT?

*Plan,
I haven't known dearest Jean.

April 12 1947
9:45

We've really had some grand times together these <sup>past</sup> six or eight months haven't we? It's to bad we didn't get to know each other sooner, after all look how long we've lived next door to each other.

Honest tho Jean, hasn't it been fun going to the show on Sat. nite and Sundays. And taking our little strolls up to the "Stop Shop" you know why of course. I hope with your sake that you get to be with him before long. And maybe you will.  but so.

Oh well say. Haven't we had fun with Buddy, Land, Jim, Jimmy, Johnny and all that bunch. They're loads of fun when you get to know them. Am I they?

Do you remember those Sundays we spent with Barroak? They were fun too weren't they? Bay, you really got groovy. One Sunday nite if I remember correctly.

Now Jean honey Chile but don't Jackie tell you something. Please don't go around getting so many boy friends that you can't make up you're mind who you want to be with, after all girls can't afford to be so choosy these days. And Jean, I want you to stop going around telling all you're boy friends you hate them every time you get mad. Don't you know you hurt their little feelings? Well you do. Buddy will never get over that because you put on his heart when you told him you hated him.

and I bet poor ole Charles is up in Norfolk eating his heart out for you. If I remember right in his letter he said you were and he meant it a grand sport. you shouldn't have gotten so huffy when we were all over here those nites.
He knew you weren't really mad.

By the way do you remember the nite we ~~went~~ in the Cemetery? you say you didn't really cry but you'll never get

But a d Harold to believe it.
And how about Christmas eve and Xmas day - do you remember out on the Lone some pine road when every thing was so slick and we couldn't turn around?
Oh a d what about that rite you <sup>or</sup> Billy got in that fuss and you slapped him - you're a bad girl that's what you are -

By the way while I'm recalling things to your mind don't forget the rite you a d Ralph, me and Billy and Buck and Willen a went to Valdesse a d the Cop pulled us and the funny thing is we were driv'g slow.
Don't ask why! you a d Ralph were really go'g to town. How about that?

you remember the gang was suppose to come tonite well here they are - gotta stop now

Late, much later
Woo has been on here again, it was too cold outside for me. It was still a good thing I had slacks on tho.

Mather says I'd better be getting to bed so I'll cut out this foolishness and say what I should have said on the first page -

Jan, you're really one grand person, I don't know how I'd gotten along on some of my dates with out you. There's wish of you all the luck and love possible now and in the future. you certainly do deserve it. maybe by this time next year you'll have your hearts desire. I hope so. you're lots of fun and a grand sport. I hope you'll always stay just as you are. coz you're something different to them

and try ever now and
